ADDRESS

EVENING CRITIC PUBLISHING COMPANY,
WASHINGTON, D. C. Entered at the Pest Office in Washington as see nd class matter.

Saturday, Dec. 24, 1881.

WE UNDERSTAND that Mr. James Gor don Bennett is assisting the State Depart ment financially.

THE PREJUDICE exhibited by Charles J Guiteau against District Attorney Corkhill is almost as bitter as that manifested toward the same official last spring and summer by A. M. Gibson and Isaac W. McVey.

THERE IS EVERY BEASON to believe that our esteemed contemporary, the Post, has decided to resume the duties of a Democratic organ. Its present organship of those Republican Congressmen who didn't get chairmanships is not understood to be

Some of OUR PIOUS EXCHANGES think Sam Randall's bill to refund at 3 per cent. is a Democratic dodge to make the public think they wanted to reduce taxation. Inasmuch as Mr. Sherman got the same bill before the said public first, we hope the "dodge" will be correctly placed.

THE New York Herald would evidently like to have the distinguished Mr. Shipherd succeed Steve Hurlburt at Lima. Th distinguished Mr. Shipherd would probably not require any instructions. By the way, is Shipherd admitted at the Herald office on the same footing with John Codmanthat is to say, on the ground floor.

SO FAR AS OUR EXCHANGES have come to hand we note that none of the great Democratic organs of the country are pleased with Speaker Keifer's committees. The great Democratic organs have had so much influence in Republican affairs of late that they feel really burt about the way Keifer has acted. The great Democratic organs are also sad at the prospect of losing control of the Post-office Department soon after the 1st of January. But they still cling hope fully to the Department of Justice.

Modesty is one of the prevailing characteristics of the Philadelphians. The other day a showman undertook to march a band of Zulus about the streets in native costumes—that is to say breech-clouts and grease paint. The mayor of the town saw the exhibition and was shocked. He ordered the chief of police to see that the gentle savages were provided with ulster overcoats when they next went out to promenade. It would not do to send a Philadelphian on a diplomatic mission to the King of Dahomey. Mr. Arthur should bear this in mind.—St. Louis Fost-Dispatch.

This reminds us of the depravity in

This reminds us of the depravity in Washington. We had the same show here and some of our first-class familie along the line of march rubbed the dust of their opera glasses.

SECRETARY KIRKWOOD yesterday issued the bounty-land scrip due to John Faul Jones to his heirs. There were twenty-seven pieces. This shows a high appreciation of J. P. Jones' services in that genite and joyous passage-of-arms between the Bon Homme Richard and the Serapis off Marblehead some years-ago,—Republica.

We are glad to know that the services o Paul Jones have thus been recognized, even tardily, by his grateful country. But we never knew before that the Bon Homme Richard and the Scrapis met twice. We knew they had one terrific battle off Old Flamborough Head, on the Yorkshire coast; but the other combat, located by the infallible historiographer of our esteemed contemporary "off Marblehead," is a new thing to us. We shall at once overhaul our log. It is humiliating to think that Paul Jones fought a sea-fight " off Marble head" unbeknownst, as it were

IT IS GRATIFYING TO LEARN that the President contemplates offering the Secretaryship of the Navy to Mr. William E. Chandler, of New Hampshire. Mr. Chan ler's eminence in the councils of his party and the distinguished merit of his services as a partisan undoubtedly entitle him to exalted recognition. But apart from these considerations, Mr. Chandler's rank among public men and his familiarity with public affairs suggests the highest availability in the personal sense.

A Republican Cabinet without New England representation would be an anomaly The selection of Mr. Chandler would not only accord to New England its traditional representation, but would also form an exception to the intensely Stalwart rule prevailing thus far; an exception which as the President doubtless realizes, would be hailed with satisfaction by a great many Republicans whose views are worth attention. It is not necessary to refer to the question of special adaptation. A man of Mr. Chandler's capacity in affairs stands at all times adapted to the duties and responsibilities of any place to which the fortune of politics may call him.

And last but not least of the many things to be said in his favor is the fact that his frank courage of opinion in matters of pub-lic discussion has won for him the respect of everybody, while the simplicity and geniality of his social ways and manner give him the best sort of popularity. Mr. Chandler is a thorough representative of the youth and vigor of America. He would be an element of party strength and general popularity in the Cabinet.

Neglected Pumps.

To the Editor of the Ecening Critic:

As an evidence of culpable neglect on the part of those whose duty it is to attend to the wants and necessary requirements of the city, and who are well paid, no doubt, for a supposed faithful performance of duty. I beg leave to say, through the columns of your fair and impartial journal, that the pump on Eleventh, near of street, northwest, always regarded as one of the best pumps in the city for good water, has been out of repair, yielding no water, for nearly two months.

I would also call attention to the pump on the corner of Massachusetts avenue and Fourth street northwest. The water was excellent and quite a treasure to the neighborhood. Four or five years ago a beer and whisky selion opened on that corner. In a month or two afterward I found that the halfe had been removed or broken off, and then again the top cover was also taken away, until finally the handle was wronched off, and there this pump has remained ever since an abandoned wreck. Doubtless it can be repaired and put in good condition.

If not the duty of the District Commissioners, condition.

If not the duty of the District Commissioners, nor of pump commissioners to personally see after these matters, then, to my mind, the negligence of subordinates can only be accounted for on the principle of "like master, like man," and hence they maintain "a masterly inactivity."

Very respectfully, Dec. 23, 1861.
